

Literacy: Never too early! Never too late!

September is National Literacy Month

The Chatham County Literacy Council (Chatham Literacy) taught 178 adults to read last year so that they could earn a GED, become a U.S. citizen, obtain a job or a promotion, get involved in their community and children’s schools, or achieve a personal goal. Chatham Literacy is embracing National Literacy Month to raise awareness of literacy needs in Chatham County and to raise funds in a campaign that promotes the message Literacy: Never too early! Never too late! Orange Literacy and Durham Literacy will also be participating in their respective counties.

Please become a partner in promoting literacy in Chatham County by purchasing a literacy T-shirt for each of your employees and by joining in the exciting activities planned in September and throughout the coming year. This is not just any T-shirt. A person’s T-shirt is his/her ticket to Chatham Literacy events and benefits, including the ones described below. Your employees also will be eligible for the T-shirt rewards.

Buy a T-shirt for your employees, help Chatham Literacy, and join in the fun!

- Participate in the International Literacy Day events on September 8:
 - All day, proudly have your employees wear their literacy T-shirt on the job in support of greater literacy; others in the community also will be wearing their shirts.
 - Provide a 10% discount to everyone wearing his/her literacy T-shirt on this day.
 - Post a group photo of your employees wearing their T-shirts on your social media pages and on our Facebook page. Email the photo to us and we will post it on our website.
- Optional: Participate in T-shirt Tuesday, offering a discount to those wearing their T-shirts on that day.
- Optional: Tape a small poster – “We support literacy: never too young, never too old!” – in your business window.

Order online at www.chathamliteracy.org or send a check with the order form below. If you order before August 10, you pay only $10 per shirt. T-shirts will be delivered to you before September 8.
