

Literacy: never too early, never too late!

T-shirt or Tote Bag with a Daniel Wallace Illustration

The Chatham County Literacy Council (Chatham Literacy) helped 344 adults last year improve their literacy skills so that they could gain basic budgeting skills, learn how to use a computer, become a U.S. citizen, obtain a job or a promotion, get involved in their community and children’s schools, or achieve a personal goal. Chatham Literacy is embracing the message Literacy: never too early. never too late! to raise awareness of literacy needs in Chatham County.

When you make a donation for a 100% cotton literacy t-shirt (unisex) or a canvas tote bag (to carry your book club books) you generate literacy awareness and support literacy education in Chatham County. Wear or carry it proudly.

Be part of a movement to improve literacy!

Post selfies of you and friends, wearing your t-shirts or carrying your totes, on the Chatham Literacy Facebook page.

Order online at <https://www.chathamliteracy.org> or send a check with the order form below.

T-shirts and tote bags are a donation of $25 each.

You may order until April 15, 2026. Pick-up or shipping options are available.
