

Chatham County Libraries

Leslie Ocampo
Joselyn Villasenor

Reading library books through an app

Books, audiobooks, and magazines offered through the library's digital platform

To access this material, all you need is your library card number or the one given to you when you register online for a card

<https://chathamnc.seamlessdocs.com/f/LibraryCard>

How to Use the App

- Go to your app store on your phone
- Type "libby" into your search box and download
- Open the App and type your library card number and pin
- You will have access to their online materials
- Adult fiction, children's books, magazines, audiobooks, and more!

Library activites

Walk and Talk Book Club

March 21, March 28, April 4, and April 11

Meet @ 10:30 a.m.

at the bike rack outside the front door

Meet up with fellow readers at the bike rack just outside the library entrance to walk the campus path*, practice rusty social skills, and exchange book ideas. Bring your reading list, a like-minded friend, or even your dog for an opportunity to walk and talk about books at the library. Rain or shine!

Recommended for ages 16 and up. For more information, contact amy.clement@chathamlibraries.org or call 919-545-8084.

Virtual Film Screenings

Can be centered around a theme

Access granted via email

Library Book Sale BOOK SALE

Friday, April 1
9am-5pm

Saturday, April 2
9am-2pm

at Chatham Community Library

Join us for a book sale, organized by the Friends of the Chatham Community Library! This year, the Friends have decided to hold several smaller sales for a safer shopping experience. The first sale on April 1 & 2 will feature general fiction, science fiction, and mystery. All items will be $2. There will not be a bag day on Saturday.

Friends of the Library members will receive 10% off a purchase of $5 or more.

For more information, or to join or renew your Friends membership, visit <https://friendsccl.org/Coming-Book-Sales>

Library Card

VALID ID

- Driver's license
- State Id

PROOF OF RESIDENCE

-

Online library access

Any resident of the following North Carolina counties who is at least five years old is eligible for a Chatham County Public Library (CCPL) card: Alamance, Chatham, Durham, Harnett, Lee, Moore, Orange, Randolph, Wake. Anyone who works in Chatham County, regardless of where they live, is entitled to a CCPL card.

Are you a student in Chatham County Schools? If so, you already have a library account through the Chatham PASS program! Use your PowerSchool ID as your account number, and the last four digits of that number as your PIN.

By submitting this form, you apply for the right to use Chatham County Public Libraries' online resources and agree to comply with library policies. Parents or legal guardians must complete this form for applicants under 16 years of age. See www.chathamnc.org/librarypolicies for complete policies.

After reviewing your information, library staff will contact you via your preferred notification method to issue a library account number. Please visit in person to pick up your physical library card. You will need to present a valid photo ID (and proof of address if your ID does not show your current address) in order to receive full borrowing privileges for physical library materials.

-
- Teen Time
 - LEGO Club
 - k-5 Board Games
 - Dungeons and Dragons
 - Story time
 - Scratch Coding
 - Family Art

Youth Programs :CCL

<https://www.chathamcountync.gov/government/departments-programs-i-z/library/events-calendar>

A

OPEN MIC

D

COMPUTER CLASSES

U

LOCAL HISTORY & GENEALOGY

L

HOMEBOUND DELIVERY SERVICE

Currently suspended due to COVID- 19

T

RESEARCH AND REFERENCE

thank you!

<https://www.chathamcountync.gov/government/departments-programs-i-z/library>